

Benefits of Membership

Becoming a PrintForward member provides opportunities in education, resources, networking with others in the printing industry, and to opportunities. It also entitles you to membership in Printing Industries of America (PIA), an Affiliate membership in the Canadian Manufacturer and Exporters (CME), and all members have a Premium Membership in Whattheythink.com. PrintForward's membership is corporate. Therefore, all of your employees are also included as members of the association and can take advantage of the benefits PrintForward provides. Association fees are annual and based on sales in the last fiscal year. This information is kept confidential and is not shared with any other members. PrintForward's fiscal year runs from January 1st to December 31st. Members can remit dues annually or quarterly. They can also choose a monthly option using a credit card on file.

Four Categories of Membership

Active Members:

Are individual proprietors, firms, partnerships, or corporations engaged in the printing allied industries such as prepress, finishing and mailing.

Supplier Members:

Are individual proprietors, firms, partnerships or corporations that supply materials, equipment, special services or facilities directly related to the printing industry who do not qualify to become Active Members.

Special Associate Members:

Are schools, groups and agencies providing services to the Printing Industry who do not qualify for full active membership but who, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, deserve membership status in the association.

Consultant Members:

Are individual proprietorships or a company with a maximum of two employees that provide consulting services to the printing industry.

Please fill in the application form below. Dues can be paid annually, quarterly or by credit card on file on a monthly basis. If you have chosen to pay your dues by credit card or if you would like to set up a monthly charge on your credit card to pay for your dues, PrintForward will contact you to obtain the required information. GST will be added to the amount owing. Dues rates are based on annual sales. January 1 - December 31. If you join mid-year, your dues will be prorated to December 31 and you will receive a new invoice for the new year.
